SEC. 2. All acts of proceedings by or against a Township, in its corporate capacity, shall be in the name of the Board of Trustees of the Township.

SEC. 3. The Board of Trustees of each Township shall consist of a clerk and two Justices of the Peace, except as otherwise provided in this act in respect to Justices of the Peace, in those Townships in which Cities and Towns are situated.

SEC. 4. In every Township in which any City or Town is situated, or which may consist of a City or Town, the number of Justices of the Peace to be elected shall be two more than the number of Wards in such City or Town, or in case such City or Town is not divided into Wards, then one additional Justice for each five hundred inhabitants, or if there are less than five hundred inhabitants, one additional Justice; for the purpose of obtaining the number of inhabitants in any such City or Town, the corporate authorities shall have power to take a census thereof.

SEC. 6. Such election shall be held in all respects under the rules and regulations now prescribed by law, at such place in each Township as the County Commissioners may designate, and the return thereof shall be made to the Board of Commissioners of each County, who shall declare the result of said election, and within five days thereof shall notify the persons receiving the majority of votes in each Township, of their election.

SEC. 7. The persons who are elected at such election shall appear, within five days after service of notice, before the County Commissioners and qualify by taking and subscribing an oath of office, which oath shall be filed with the Clerk of the Board of Commissioners.

SEC. 8. The Board of Commissioners is authorized to decide in all cases of contested election, subject to appeal to the Superior Court of the County.

SEC. 10. At the time and the manner authorized by this act for the election of Township Boards of Trustees, there shall be held an election for one Constable in each Township, who shall give bond and security in such reasonable sum as the Board of Trustees may deem sufficient, to be not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, and take the oath of office as now prescribed by law.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall have power to purchase and to hold for the use of the Township, such real estate as they may deem necessary, not to exceed one acre, and to erect thereon a Township house, which shall be as near central in location as may be; and for the purpose of buying such property and erecting such building, they are authorized, if they deem it expedient, to lay and collect a tax upon all the property in the Township, with the approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the Township, to be given at an election to be held for that purpose, under the directions of such Trustees.

SEC. 12. The Board shall have power to appoint his own meetings, and to adjourn from time to time.

SEC. 13. A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 14. This authority shall be exercised under the rules, regulations, restrictions and penalties, in all respects, prescribed and imposed in chapter one hundred and one of the Revised Code, upon the Justices of the late County Courts. The Clerk of the Board shall perform the duties therein enjoined upon the Clerk of the late County Court; and the Township Constable shall perform the duties imposed in said chapter on the Sheriff.

SEC. 15. In all cases of the exercise of authority under the preceding section, there may be an appeal by either party from the decision of the Township Board of Trustees to the Board of Commissioners of the County, whose decision in the case shall be final; and, on every appeal, the Clerk of the Board of Trustees shall transmit to the Commissioners all the papers in the case, and the parties shall be allowed to be heard before the Commissioners de novo.

SEC. 16. The Township Board of Trusteesshall assess the taxable property of their Townships, and make return to the County Commissioners for revision, as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 17. The Board of Trustees of each Township shall make out a written report, upon the condition of the roads and bridges in their respective Townships, to the County Commissioners, at least ten days before regular terms of the Superior Courts of the County.

SEC. 18. The Board of Trustees shall audit all accounts against the Township, as directed in section ten of the act concerning the government of Counties; and shall cause semi-annual publications of all accounts, so audited, to be posted at the Township house, or other place of meeting, if there be no Township house, and three other public places in the Township.

SEC. 22. The Commissioners of any county not included in this act, shall have power to designate their present election precincts, as Townships, for school and assessment purposes, until a proper survey is made and a report of the same is made to this body.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURN.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!
Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS, CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERBY,

OF FRANKLIN.

JUDGE BROOKS.

Mr. John Pool's organ, the North Carolinian, published at Elizabeth City, by a carpet bagger fresh from Pennsylvania, charges Hon. Lewis Hanes, of the Old North State, with "giving currency to abuse and misstatements" against Judge Brooks.—Brother Hanes is a man of great equanimity, and was never known to "abuse or misrepresent." He has convicted Judge Brooks by facts and reasoning which cannot be contradicted. The truth is, Brother Hanes is too credulous and good for the times. He really believes that Judge Brooks and Starbuck, the District Attorney for the United States, are honest men, notwithstanding the hard swearing they have done to obtain their offices. Starbuck was a member of the Secesh Convention of 1861, and afterwards took the test oath, swearing that he had never given aid, countenance or encouragement, to the rebellion. He was justly presented by a Grand Jury of the Federal Court, for perjury. Judge Brooks, early in the war, served as Captain of Confederate forces and drew his pay in Confederate money. He also gave, as a present, to a soldier, a horse, bridle and saddle, for the army. Yet, to hold his place as Judge, he swore he never "gave aid, countenance or encouragement," to the rebellion. Judge Brooks can't be better than Starbuck, and Starbuck can't be successfully defended, or his guilt concealed even by the broad mantle of Brother Hanes' charity.

The Old North State, in reply to Mr. Pool's carpet bag organ, says:

"We are not at all conscious of having lent ourself in "giving currency to abuse and misstatements" against Judge Brooks. In the article referred to by the Carolinian we simply gave the history of the matter, stating facts, most, if not all, of which were within our own personal knowledge. The first point of law which we made in the case—that the appropriation law had nothing to do with designating what papers must do the printing—has been yielded by Judge Brooks in our favor, as we are informed and believe. Yet, notwithstanding he has yielded the point of law on which he relied for the justification of his course, he still finds an excuse to leave the printing with the Standard. We make another point of law in the case, which is quite as clear as the first one we made, and in which Judge Brooks now admits that we are right. It is that the Bankrupt law, in directing that the notices shall be published in such papers as shall have the most general circulation in the District, or in that portion of the District, in which the bankrupt and his creditors may reside, has reference not to the Judicial Districts, but to the Congressional Districts, and that the question of such circulation is a question for the Register of the District in all voluntary cases. This point, we repeat, is as clear as the one which Judge Brooks has already conceded, and we have never seen an able lawyer that did not agree with us in this opinion. A petition was once presented to Congress praying the passage of a declaratory act defining the meaning of the Bankrupt law on this latter point, and said petition was referred to the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, in which House the petition was presented. That committee reported, as we are informed by the best authority, that there was no necessity for the passage of any such act—that the meaning of the law was as clearly what we have stated it to be above as language could make it, and that but two or three of the District Judges had designated particular papers in misconstruction of it.

Upon the appearance of this report the District Judge of Mississippi—who had made a similar order to that which Judge Brooks had made in this State,—rescinded his order designating particular papers, and turned the whole matter over to the Registers in accordance with what the committee said was the plain meaning of the law. This is all we have ever asked of Judge Brooks—it is all we ask now. We are promised a copy of the report of the Senate's Committee, alluded to above, and as soon as we can get it we will publish it.

The question was also before the Committee of the last House of Representatives—charged with the revision of the bankrupt law,—which Committee were unanimously of the same opinion with the Judiciary Committee of the Senate. This we have from one of the ablest members of the House Committee.

We are not conscious of having done Judge Brooks any injustice—we know we are incapable of doing him, or any other man, an intentional injustice—and shall take great pleasure in reading the defense which the Carolinian intends to make for the Judge. If it shall convince us that our articles have done injustice to that gentleman we shall take the greatest possible pleasure in making the proper amends.

NOW WE HAVE IT.—Peace has come at last. A lover of peace, a peaceable merchant, has at last conquered a peace by beating Joe Holden like a log. Yesterday Cebe was seen on the street without his big stick, hugging a water melon in his arms. Oh! blessed peace! they who have thee, want, nothing, and they who are without thee want everything.

COMING ROUND.

The Standard of this City is certainly very much exercised on the subject of its political status, and is laboring most strenuously to convince all the world and the rest of mankind, of two facts; first, that the Democratic party is dead; and secondly, that the Standard is one of the most liberal and conservative journals in existence—that it never did, and never expects to, favor proscription in any shape, and is peculiarly and specially the advocate of all that is liberal, just and fair.

Of the truth of both these propositions or assertions, we must be permitted to indulge some slight doubt, at the same time we most positively decline entering into a labored discussion with the Standard on the subject during the present hot, dry weather. Whether the Democratic party be alive or dead is a matter that future events must decide. If dead, we expect to see the Standard establishment go into mourning, and exhibit other decent testimonials of sorrow on the occasion, as that paper is, or was, the great Democratic bulwark in this State, before it made its descent into the slimy depths of Radicalism; and its present editor was so Democratic in his instincts, a few months ago, as to be ready to edit a Democratic paper in this State, or any where else, for pay enough.—So, if the Democratic party be really defunctus, we shall prepare to offer all the spare sympathy we may have on hand, to the Standard concern, after expending a reasonable portion on that part of the public who are sufficiently gullible to place any reliance on the Standard's declaration in this matter.

If Democracy be really dead, its ghost appears to give the Standard no little uneasiness, and we fear it will continue to frighten that establishment, until it is safely housed in the Conservative fold, for admission into which it is now laboring so sedulously to convince the world it is duly and truly prepared, by sincere repentance of its former Radical sins, to enter.

If the Standard is ready to bring forth fruits meet for repentance, and assist in lifting the pressure from those who have been borne down and proscribed by the despotic policy of its party, so much the better. If it is ready to aid the truly Conservative element of this State in removing the odious disabilities its party have laid upon some of the best and most reliable men among us, so much the better. If it is sincere, and will lend what little influence it possesses in removing the heavy burdens that have been imposed upon an already ruined and impoverished people, and to stay the torrent of corruption and extravagance of those with whom it has been acting, so much the better. If, in short, it will, henceforth, abandon its former course of reckless mendacity, and try for the future to be a decent sheet, so much the better. If such a course is really determined on by that print, all the people will cry Amen! and the devil will be greatly astonished.

A NEW PHASE OF AFFAIRS—A QUESTION FOR THE LAWYERS.

The Greensborough Register rises to a point of order, viz: that there can be no election of Township officers this Summer. He states his point of order thus:

By the Act of April 12th 1869, an election is ordered for Township officers on the first Thursday in August of the present year.

The Constitution provides that each voter shall be registered.

There has been no township registration.

The former registration and voting districts are very different from the present townships.

The Constitution says (Act VI, Sec. 2.) that the General Assembly, (not County Boards of Commissioners) shall order registrations.

The General Assembly has ordered no such registration.

The Register of Deeds is required to furnish to Judges of election, in all elections after the 20th November, 1868, with registry books of their respective precincts, (or as in this case, Townships.)

The Register of Deeds has no such registration books to furnish.

The "Act concerning Townships" says that all elections must be held "in all respects under the rules and regulations prescribed by law."

These rules and regulations are contained in the Acts of the special session of 1868.

These Acts make no rules or regulations applicable to this election.

Therefore, there can be no election of Townships officers this Summer.

The question is left to "the Chair" to decide.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS—WAKE COUNTY.

We are to have, it seems, no Township elections in Wake. Our sapient Board of Commissioners, although in almost continuous session during a portion of the time since their election, failed utterly to perform that part of their duty relating to the Townships, and, hence, the appointments of pro tem Magistrates and other local officers, must continue until this part of the duty of the Board shall be performed, and their action reported to the General Assembly.

That the Board of Commissioners has had time to do their duty in this respect, there is no question, and, therefore, there must be some other reason for its not being done, apart from the want of time. If any one desires a good ground for a guess on the subject, we would refer him to the precinct report of the polling at the last election, in which it will be seen that at a majority of the precincts of the county, there were majorities against the Radical ticket, and that in others the Radical majorities were small. The Board of Commissioners, no doubt, reasoned, that if the Townships were organized and elections held, many of the present odious appointees of the Governor would be left out in the cold, and, therefore, they let the matter go by default, in order to keep many of their friends in their places. This is the real reason, we believe, for this palpable neglect of duty on the part of the Board of Commissioners, and it will be hard to convince the people other wise.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 19TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT, COMPOSED OF THE COUNTIES OF WAKE AND FRANKLIN.

The following resolution, passed at a meeting of Conservatives and Democrats, at Franklinton, on the 12th inst., will explain the manner of my being made a candidate for your suffrages, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Senator Wynne, as well as the principles which I shall advocate:

"Resolved, That we place before the people of the 19th Senatorial District, Joshua Perry, of the county of Franklin, as a candidate upon the platform of the Constitution, universal suffrage and general amnesty, an honest and economical expenditure of the public money, a reduction of the Taxes by which our people are oppressed, and in opposition to the extravagances and peculations of the present administration."

I stand upon this broad platform without qualification or reservation.

I have heretofore opposed, and, if elected, shall continue to resist, that Radical carpet-bag influence, which has involved the State in debt almost beyond the hope of payment,—a debt which has reached the monstrous accumulation of upwards of forty-five millions of Dollars. Simply to state the amount is sufficient to startle a people already impoverished; and the visits of the tax-gatherers will soon make the reality more fearful.

To build an indefinite number of Railroads, with bonds, instead of money, is such a policy as no prudent man would adopt in the management of his own affairs, and, applied to the management of State affairs, cannot recommend itself to sensible, honest, prudent men. The credit of the State is now at its lowest ebb. State bonds are worth less than thirty cents (in gold) in the dollar. When the State spends one dollar on its numerous Railroads, it receives therefor only thirty cents in work!

If the people do not interpose and put a stop to the expenditures of a reckless, prodigal Legislature, manipulated in carpet bag interests, the money lenders of New York will refuse to buy the bonds, or have anything to do with them; and the price of them shows that they have nearly arrived at this conclusion already.

I do not propose, fellow-citizens, to indulge in empty promises. They are easily made, and are generally as easily broken.—Nor do I deem it necessary to present other issues than those here referred to, or to discuss them at any length. They need no discussion. They are fearfully palpable. I have not shaped my politics to secure a nomination,—which, indeed, my inclinations and pursuits, if not opposed by a sense of duty, would urge me to decline,—nor will I do so to secure my election. I stand square upon the platform of Universal Suffrage, General Amnesty, and old fashioned honesty, economy and retrenchment in our State affairs.

I have adopted this mode of making myself known to the voters of the Nineteenth District, because of the limited space of time before the election, which will preclude as thorough a canvass as is usual.

JOSHUA PERRY.

For the Sentinel.

LIFE AT THE SOUTH.

"Life at the South." This expression, in the happy days of yore, suggested to the mind all that was bright and beautiful.—"Life at the South," was a magic phrase, the utterance of which brought to the mind pictures of hospitable mansions, green lawns, rich viands, moonlight drives and the early chase. But 'Life at the South,' spoken in reference of to day, and the bright picture is over shadowed with clouds, and scenes of want, penury and discontent, come forth and oppress the mind. And though the fair, false smile of the politician may play over the surface—though the soft, refined hand of society may smooth down its rugged points, still underneath this human tide is the upas tree of unhappiness, green, flourishing, rampant—more strong, more powerful than ever since that natal day, "when the stars sang together" for joy.

This revolution, caused by the commotions, upheavings, chasms, hates and divisions, which marked our four years bloody war, has left us in a most turbulent, chaotic condition. And the Reconstruction acts passed since eighteen hundred and sixty-five, have made reforms in our social compact, that are new and wonderful—repugnant both to the natural and educated eye.

But when time shall have run its cycle year after year, will not our tastes have become sufficiently vitiated, our natures degenerated, and our minds habituated to regard these laws with complacency, if not approval? The question is fearfully propounded. But if the God of nature is the acknowledged power of those future ages, the indignant no, will be as universally heard then, as it is felt now.

But what is "Life at the South?" In the old brown house over the hill live two orphan sisters, without brother, aunt, cousin or any connection of Adam's race, save that of humanity. Their only brother, their shield and defence in life's weary battle, was disposed of during the war. But when he died, where he died, and how he died, are answered like thousands of such painful questions have been answered before, by that terrible word "unknown." Before the war, the profits of more than a hundred slaves kept these sisters above the pangs of want and of the world's dread scorn. But the issue of our conflict removed from them this prop, and set them down in the old brown house, on this strip of pine land.—Here they have come in search of that which only the millionaire, with his princely ships and fine harbors can enjoy—a livelihood—and to avoid that which virtue in rags detests—a dependency. And the old brown house will give them shelter—the rent of the land and percentage, and the garden is reserved for the field of their own future labors, hopes and tears. Night after night these sisters lie folded in each others arms—more mournful than the wind which rushes round the old homestead—more pressed with care than with covering,—and ere the stars have left the sky, or the East heralds the coming morn, they have forsaken a couch, made intolerable by thought and perplexity. Precaution, born of the experience of former bitter nights has prepared them with fuel for a fire, and soon a faint blaze reveals the sad forms of the sisters, pressed close together on the hearth rug, each trying to comfort the other, and both trying to discover in the dark uncertain future, some glimmering light of hope. But day is abroad, and the sisters presume to ring for Betsy Jane, a colored girl whom they have hired to cook, wait, protect and assist them in work general and specific, but Betsy Jane does not come. The kitchen is searched and surroundings explored, and the sun rides high in the heavens, and breakfast, that cherriest and choicest of all meals, is in a degenerate state, still Betsy Jane cannot be found. There is the meal, milk and lard. But by what culinary art or trick of legerdemain bread is to be produced, the sisters can't conceive. They know these ingredients must unite, and in a fit of desperation the mixture takes place, as unnatural as the Reconstruction Acts, and as distasteful, I presume. And while partaking of this model meal, they catch a glimpse of Betsy Jane entering the kitchen in ball attire, which, however, is soon doffed and she stands before them, with a sulky defiant look. They begin to expostulate with her for going to the ball and remaining so late without their knowledge. But freedom, their word of untold meaning, and the platform upon which the "new issue" stand, was mounted on this occasion.

"If I is free, I think I mought go to balls and 'to-dos' widout being quarreled and fussed wid. I thinks free folk mought do as dey please."

"Betsey Jane," the sisters replied, "you certainly are as free as we are. Still you have hired yourself to us for a specified time, and a stipulated price, and, therefore, owe to us the obedience of a servant."

"I is no servant. I is free. If I is hired to you, you's paid me nothin but give me dis white apron."

"You have only been here two days."

"Well, if I kant' gin satisfaction, and you pays me what you owes me, I'll leave."

"We shall certainly not pay you any more, nor will you give satisfaction, unless you have more respect for our wishes and commands."

"I kan't stay whar folks don't pay, and is always diag donging from morning 'till night. I is free and can get plenty ob homes." And Betsey Jane left. But the sisters were not dismayed. From the number of colored women they saw strolling about, they expected most easily to procure another, and soon stopped a black man whom they saw passing, and requested him to send them a nice trusty girl. But he very insinuatingly enquired, "Whar was Betsey Jane?" They told him she had left, and recounted to him the circumstances, when he raised himself very erect, and with a profound sigh said, "it wus very misfortunate. Their being strangers in that part of the world, and Betsey Jane the first young lady they had hired, he was 'fraid t'would opperate mightily 'gainst em, and make it ruther tough for 'em to get another."

"But uncle Ben," the sisters exclaimed, "you know we have told you the truth, and that she left without any just cause."

"To be sure, he said in his blandest manner, but you know ————." And the insinuation undoubtedly meant that what Betsey Jane said among the dusky race we need not gainsay.

The sisters then called to a poor ragged woman, whom they saw pass in with an infant in her arms. But she, too, looked like she had seen Betsey Jane, and had no idea of being hired. They then asked, "if she would not be kind enough to cook their dinner?" To which proposition she readily assented. Dinner was soon announced. And after eating lightly, they left the entire meal to administer to the appetite of the cook. They also left other evidences of the trust and confidence they reposed in her in the way of compliment.

When the sisters returned to the dining-room they found the table swept of its contents, and every other available edible, which they had left in the way of compliment, missing, and the cook gone!

But perseverance brings ultimately success. The sisters at last obtained a girl from one of the higher classes of this race, with newly fledged liberties. And no New York belle could be more dainty about handling pots and ovens, with gloves and holders. The contest between the two sisters and the girl for several days, which should be the greatest lady, was at last acceded to the girl. The sisters stepped down and she stepped up, and whilst they lead in the work, most menial, she follows afar off.

Now dear reader this is no fancy picture. Scenes just as perplexing daily occur. And redress for our troubles is not expected in Congressional or Legislative halls. Our position is the result of all this renovating, revolutionizing system—still, the remedy lies within the domestic realm. There are those that serve, irrespective of color, in every clime. Happy England has its servants, and a household of respected, contented domestics. Our Northern friends have servants, and rules and regulations that exact good conduct and command good wages. And why cant we? From the highest official to the lowest serf, a good name is the ruling power. Upon it we all hang for rewards of merit or demerit.—And are there no laws by which we can discriminate between good and bad servants? Freedom seems to have filled our former slaves with ideas of emigration.—One State empties itself into another, one county into another, one family into another. They are all new and untried to us. And that the peace and happiness of so many of our families should be so often disturbed by a worthless servant, is most unfortunate, but not unexpected.

And are there no rules by which we can steer more cheerily and smoothly over the domestic sea? Will not some good housewife take the subject in hand, and devise, for our benefit, a set of laws which will strengthen the virtue and integrity of the kitchen, and promote the comfort and happiness of our firesides?

LUCIE LELLAND.

SYLVANIA, N. C.

WHAT IS IT IF NOT BRIBERY?

Gen. Grant can't be bribed, they tell us. Oh no, he only accepts tens of thousands of dollars from gentlemen, and bestows offices upon them equal in value to the money. Ancient Pistol scorned the word "steel," as applied to himself and his fellows, and insisted that "coney" should be substituted; and, if Grant's friends want some other word than bribery used in his case, we respectfully invite them to tell us what one they would suggest. Four of the heavy contributors to his wealth, men that the country never heard of, are actually members of the Cabinet, and, perhaps, three other contributors, not known as such to the public, make up the rest of the Cabinet. We may be told that the fact of his selection, as four of his cabinet officers, of four of his contributors, was a mere coincidence, a happening, a chance, and that he would have selected these same four obscure individuals if they had never given him a dollar, but is any man fool enough to belive this or to expect anybody else to believe it? If Grant has not taken bribes, bribery is but an imaginary crime.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Chicago Tribune advocates the transfer of the Capital from Washington city to St. Louis. Why not Galena, Illinois? The Grants and the Dents have property there and thereabouts. Isn't their influence worth something? Say Galena, and we shall have the recommendation embodied in the President's message. Ha!—Courier-Journal.

SWEARING CHINAMEN.—The trial of Ah Choy and Ah Sam, now going on in the District Court, for the murder of Ah Sou, a la the Silver City (Idaho Territory) Tidal Wave is creating a greater interest than any trial that has ever occurred here, on account of the novelty of the method of swearing witnesses. A rooster's head is hacked off with a knife, a saucer broken, the oath is written on yellow paper, burned, and the smoke, in which is supposed to be the spirit of the burned oath, blowned up to heaven in each case. The prosecution and defence each swore five witness, killed five chickens, broke five saucers, burned five pieces of paper, etc. After killing the chickens they are thrown away by the Chinamen, and considered unfit for use.

Henceforth money orders are made payable between Belgium and Great Britain at the same rates of charges as those stipulated throughout the United Kingdom.

THE NORTH CAROLINA LAND COMPANY ADVERTISER.—This large advertising sheet is on our table, containing advertisements of nearly three hundred tracts of land in the State for sale with full description; together with letters from many prominent and influential physicians and other gentlemen in relation to the healthfulness and other advantages peculiar to our State. It also announces an arrangement for excursion tickets from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, to Raleigh, good to the purchaser for 30 days, at greatly reduced rates.

THANKS.—We return our sincere thanks for complimentary invitations to attend the Anniversary celebration of Oak City Council, Friends of Temperance, on Monday evening next. The occasion will doubtless be one of great enjoyment and interest to the participants, and we anticipate much pleasure in attending the festivities.

LITERARY CURIOSITY.—A friend has left at our office a literary curiosity, in the shape of a chirographic newspaper, entitled "Lincoln's Advocate," and purporting to have been published at Newbern, February, 1862, "by a free negro whom Gen. Foster brought with him from Kinston." It apes the character of the present Radical press pretty successfully, and is altogether a very successful burlesque of the times in which it was gotten up.

THE RECONSTRUCTED FARMER for July is on our table, containing many valuable selected and original articles on the Farm, the Garden, the Orchard and the Household. Published at Tarborough, by Thigpen & Daney; subscription price, $2 per annum; liberal deductions made to clubs.

THE GALAXY, for August, Sheldon & Co., 498 an 500, Broadway, N. Y., contains "a continuation of "Put Yourself in his Place," by Charles Reade, with other interesting articles.

THE SOUTHERN PLANTER AND FARMER, published at Richmond, Va., adapts itself to the situation in agricultural affairs and must prove an admirable help to farmers. The August number is received. Charles B. Williams, editor and proprietor, assisted in the editorial department by Frank G. Ruffin; John M. Allen, horticultural editor. Price $3 per year.

SIX-PENNY MUSIC.—We have received four more pieces of DeWitt's series of six penny choice music, "Thy Voice is near," "Blue-eyed Violets," "Up in a Balloon," and "The Maiden and her Lunnet." The former numbers have given great satisfaction to some musical lady friends, into whose hands they were placed for practice, and these, we have no doubt, are equally pretty. H M. DeWitt, 13, Frankfort St., New York.

SMALL SPECULATION.—We understand that our town Commissioners are making a small speculation on dog collars; having them made at ten cents apiece, and selling them to dog owners at twenty-five. "Every little's a help," and the nett gain on dog-collars, after "lager round," will lighten the market house burden a little. There are a great many dogs running about the streets without the badge of privilege, who ought to contribute, such, his fifteen cents nett to the City Treasury.

Anniversary Celebration of Oak City Council, No. 16, Friends of Temperance.

PROGRAMME.

All the members of the Council will assemble at their Hall on Monday evening, the 19th inst., at 7½ o'clock, and form a procession and proceed to the Hall of the House of Representatives, where speeches will be delivered by Rev. Jno. N. Andrews, of Wilmington, N. C., and other able speakers. The citizens of Raleigh and the public, generally, are respectfully invited to attend.

After the speaking the members of the Council and invited guests will repair to the Yarborough House, where refreshments will be served.

GEO. W. POE,

N. A. STEADMAN, } Marshals.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the Baptist Mission School of this City, took place yesterday afternoon, consisting of Declamations, Dialogues &c, by the pupils. This school has been in operation two months, and is closed for a vacation of one month. There have been in attendance upwards of one hundred pupils, girls and boys, under the immediate superintendence of Capt. B. W. Justice, a gentleman admirably fitted for the position, who has been assisted by Mrs. Mary Belcher, and Misses Martha and Annie Litchford as Teachers.

The next term begins August 16th.

We will mention in this connection, that there are three of these mission or parochial schools in the city, at which those who are unable to pay for tuition, are educated without charge—one under the charge of the Episcopal Church; one, of the Methodist, and the one above mentioned, under the charge of the Baptist Church. They are all doing well, but none have such a large attendance as that of the Baptist.

The Committee of the Methodist Church have procured the services of Mr. Reid, son of Rev. N. F. Reid, and a graduate of Trinity College, who will take charge of their school on the 1st, of August.

We hope the children of the city will avail themselves of the opportunity presented by these schools for acquiring an education.

A negro by the name of Chas. Walton, hired a buggy from the stables of Messrs. Wynne and Hays, to-day for the term of one hour, at the expiration of which time he was seen to drive by the stables at a very rapid rate, and stopped at a bar room some distance from the stable, got out to get a drink, leaving the vehicle standing in the street. Mr. Hayes sent one of his employees and had the buggy brought back, as he suspected the negro of being drunk, (which proved to be the case,) and the time had expired. In a few moments Walton came to the stable and demanded the buggy, which, of course, was refused, whereupon a dispute arose; the negro using abusive language.

Mr. H. ordered him several times to leave his premises, which order the negro insolently refused to obey and commenced reaching for a stone to throw at Mr. Hayes when Mr. H. very properly knocked the scoundrel down. The Police soon came up and marched the African to the calaboose, from whence we learn he soon succeeded in making his escape but was quickly recaptured.

P. S.—Walton, who at first resisted the officers, and continued obstreperous, was committed to jail just as we were going to press.

EMPLOYMENT OF THE MELISH.—We learn that one of the D. M. in Jones, has employed himself in squirrel hunting so successfully, since they went into summer quarters, that he has furnished each of the company with a squirrel tail tassel for his new uniform hat.

An adjourned meeting in Boston on Wednesday, of the American Tract Society of Boston, after a lengthy discussion of the proposition to dissolve the Society, divide the assets among the three denominations interested, to re-unite with the New York branch, or to sustain its present independent position, finally tabled all the propositions, and adjourned.

During the recent freshet in Connecticut, a Waterbury editor telegraphed another at the scene of action, "Send me full particulars of the flood." The answer came, "You will find them in Genesis."

Crime is as rife in the holy city of Rome as in any other city. The papers mention the following curious incidents that occurred during one day recently:—The body of a well dressed man was found in the river, having seventeen knife-wounds; a man cut his wife's throat with a diamond; a son murdered his mother, and a child, abandoned by its mother in the streets, was devoured by dogs.

The announcement of the death of Madame Haycraits, the St. Louis cyprian millionaire, was premature. She still lives.

The excavation of the Indian mounds in Cornplanter township, Venango county, Penn., has resulted in some startling developments. The mummified body of an Indian princess has been discovered, and was on exhibition in Titusville on Thursday. The remains are in an excellent state of petrification, and worthy of scientific inspection.

On the 2nd day of November an election will be held in Florida, by proclamation of Gov. Reed of that State, to take the sense of the people of West Florida on the question of annexing that portion of the State to Alabama.

A performer on the flying trapeze, named Farrell, and professionally known as Signor Becona, recently fell a distance of forty feet while performing at Wellington Music Hall, London, and was fatally injured.

Joseph J. Bates, convicted in the United States District Court, at Boston, of manufacturing stills without paying the tax required, has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment and a fine of $1,000. Bates made and sold stills for illicit distilling and then informed on the distiller, making money both ways.

Louis II. of Bavaria gave himself a special treat a week or two ago—a performance of "Lohengrin" for himself alone. The theatre was spendidly lighted, the musicians were in white cravats and swallow tails, and the King sat in solitary state in the auditorium and enjoyed himself. A similar performance of "Tristan and Isolde" followed a few days afterwards.

STATE NEWS.

U. S. MARSHAL.—We learn, from the Salem Press, that Mr. John Henry Masten, son of Sheriff Masten, of Forsyth County, has been appointed Assistant U. S. Marshal, and entered upon the duties of his office.

N. S. Cook, Esq., has received the appointment of Assistant U. S. Assessor, for that District.—Ib.

The velocipede excitement, says the Messenger, seems to be dying out in Goldsboro.

They have green corn-field peas in Goldsboro.

DEATH OF TWO SOLDIERS.—We hear that two of the white soldiers at Smithville died Wednesday night, one from heart disease, and the other committed suicide under peculiar circumstances. He was under the influence of liquor, and at the time of his death was sitting on the wharf, engaged in cutting with a sharp knife the sinews in his wrist; the copious effusion of blood soon reduced him to such a degree of weakness, that he fell overboard, and was soon drowned. Such are the rather indefinite particulars, as related to us.—Wil. Star.

K. K. K.—The Register of last week experienced a horrible nightmare over alleged outrages in Rockingham. At the special term held for that County by Judge Tourgee, the ringleader, Dr. Dandridge was arraigned and prosecuted with a vim; but, the gentlemanly Solicitor, Mr. Bulla, so completely failed to make out a case, that upon the Doctor being acquitted without even a stain upon his character, he plead ill health and had the other cases continued until after the August election. Conservatives understand this.—Greensboro Patriot.

The Fayetteville road has at last been surveyed from the Gulf to this place.—Messrs. Jones, Cane and Robinson, with their force reached this place on Monday evening last at 5 o'clock, having been on the line since the 17th of June. They were met at the suburbs by the editorial corps and several of our citizens, and cordially and hospitably entertained by Dr. Benbow. No serious difficulty was encountered at any point, and the intersection of N. C. road was made at the crossing of Ashe Street—just the point to meet the Salem road. The distance between this place and Fayetteville, as ascertained by the survey, is 95½ miles. The engineers return to Egypt this week, and will at once commence the survey from that point to Salisbury—when full reports will be made upon the distance, cost of construction, &c., upon each line. We feel sure Greensboro has nothing to fear from this report.—Greensboro Patriot.

MEMORIAL MONUMENT.—The Ladies' Memorial Association of this city have appointed Col. R. H. Cowan, Maj. M. P. Taylor, A. H VanBokkelen and Donald McRae, Esqrs., a Committee to select a design for a monument to be placed in the memorial cemetery at Oakdale. The committee are also empowered to receive contributions towards securing the remainder of the sum necessary for the purpose.—Wil. Journal.

GENERAL NEWS.

Joseph Ball, a respectable white man living in Tazewell, Virginia, was shot and mortally wounded on the day of election, while returning home from Bluestone Precinct. It seems that at the election there had been some difficulty or discussion between Ball, who was a Walker man, and a man named Thos. Lovel, whose politics were extremely Radical. No collision grew out of it, however, and the matter was supposed to have ended. When Ball was riding home in the evening, however, he was halted by Lovel in front of his (Lovel's) house, and before he could dismount was shot through the breast from a heavy shotgun. Ball cannot recover.

J. Sanford, the oldest passenger conductor of the Erie and Pittsburg Railroad, while looking from the platform of a car at Greenville some days ago, was struck on the head by a switch target and knocked from the train, breaking his skull and his right leg. His injuries are probably fatal.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The argument in the Yerger case, for procuring a removal from the military commission, and brining it before the Supreme Court, was concluded to-day. The important question involved in this petition for a habeas corpus had induced the Attorney General to enter into a written stipulation with the petitioner's counsel to put the question in such a form as may be considered and determined by the United States Supreme Court next October. The present application to the Chief Justice is to remain suspended.

The President authorizes the Attorney General to say that no sentence of a military commission further than is necessary for the safe custody of the prisoner will be executed until the final determination of the Court. This meets the approval of Mr. Chase.

Present indications point to another heavy reduction of the public debt during the month. Customs and Internal Revenue receipts are very favorable.

MACON, July 16.—The examination of Turner on the charge of attempting to pass counterfeit currency began to-day before United States Commissioner W. C. Bursill. The government concluded its testimony to-day. It proved that Turner on the early part of this year attempted to pass on a bank in this city a hundred dollar bill which was rejected as a counterfeit; also that he confessed to J. Clark Swaycies, editor of the American Union, the principal witness for the government, on the 4th of July that he had, for fear he would be killed and the notes found on his person, given eighteen hundred dollars in counterfeit notes to Marion Harris, to be returned to him when they got home. It was further proved that nine hundred dollars in counterfeits on the First National Bank of Jersey City was found on the person of this woman in Atlanta which were introduced, as also a letter from Turner to the woman found at the same time. The Court adjourned until ten o'clock to-morrow.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it always does—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious

THE SUMMER OF LOVE.

By every blush that burns and fades,
By light in eyes, by eyelids pencil'd shades,
By timid smiles, by startled tears that rise,
Softening the lustre of her radiant eyes;
By the musical silence that hath unbroken,
By the half words, that faltering, die unspoken,
By quivering mouth, averted head above you,
By everything—she says, except in words: "I love you."

"But tell me that you love me, say so, sweet:
Reach forth a hand to generously greet,
The love that lies all throbbing, at your feet."

Clasp'd close to throbbing breast,
Kiss'd warm & red lips pressed
Burning kiss on blushing cheek,
Gentler kiss on forehead fair,
Blessing lips on radiant hair,
Flashing light on golden splendor,
Crowned with benedictions tender,

"Tell me what the wondrous bliss is,
That lies perdu in our kisses!"

"Caresses, sweet, are but expression,
By which our love makes mute confession;
Left your holy eyes, divine,
See the love that glows in mine—
Heart and soul and life are thine!"

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars, comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents teat already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.
